Against The Night Raines Of Wind Canyon 5 Kat Martin

A wall of rain moved over the oak and the drops were drumming against the canopy. So much rain was falling that the sound blurred into one long, whirring noise. It reminded me of the rotor blades on a helicopter. Eventually, the noise lessened and the drops faded into a musical chime.

DESCRIBING THE RAIN - WordPress.com

I like the night owl's lonely call
And wailing sound Of wind around.
I like the gray November day
And bare, dead boughs that coldly sway
Against my pane
I like the rain. I like to sit
And laugh at it
And tend my cozy fire a bit
I like the fall
The mist and all

Poem: The Mist and All - Holy Joe

I have been one acquainted with the night. I have walked out in rain—and back in rain. I have outwalked the furthest city light. I have looked down the saddest city lane. Proclaimed the time was neither wrong nor right. I have been one acquainted with the night ...
