a person into the everlasting and ever-increasing joy of Jesus Christ. He is not merely the rope that pulls us from the threatening waves; he is the solid beach under our feet, and the air in our lungs, and the beat of our heart, and the warm sun on our skin, and the song in our ears, and the arms of our beloved.

Paul refers to the global scope of the gospel in both bookend passages — 1:6 and 1:23. He tells the Colossians that the gospel is reaching not only them in the middle of the Roman Empire but is in fact spreading even further — around the whole world. It is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven as Paul writes these very words (1:23).
